

Woodfield Distribution, LLC Continues Expansion With Columbus, OH Area Distribution Center

August 15, 2018 (Boca Raton, FL and Lockbourne, OH) – Woodfield Distribution, LLC continues to realize business expansion plans with their entry into Ohio and surrounding region with a facility for providing pharmaceutical logistics services.

Woodfield Distribution, LLC, founded in Boca Raton, FL in 2010 and known as WDSrx, is a leading Logistics Services Provider within the pharmaceutical industry specializing in prescription drug products, over-the-counter medications and related categories. WDSrx also serves medical device manufacturers, human and animal health and wellness companies.

The long-term lease for 72,312 square feet in Lockbourne, Ohio enables WDSrx to offer warehousing, fulfillment, temperature regulated storage including full cold-chain logistics, e-commerce programs, special handling of Controlled Substances (CII-CV) and centralized options for packaging and labeling, call center campaigns, financial services management, government pricing administration and reverse logistics.

WDSrx provides healthcare supply chain solutions from facilities in Florida, Texas, New Jersey, and Ohio. Procedures comply with cGMP and ISO guidelines, VAWD accreditation requirements and DSCSA regulations. The company is registered with the FDA, DEA, DOT, EPA and other authorities.

Operations at the new facility will begin immediately with future plans to develop a workforce of approximately 15 employees.

The Ohio expansion supports the WDSrx strategic plan to develop key locations in pharmaceutical hubs around the United States to streamline the supply chain between treatments and patients. According to WDSrx President Adam Runsdorf, “Our new facility reaches a greater population within a ten-hour drive than any other major metropolitan area in the country, increasing convenience for local clients and creating efficiencies for our customers based outside the region.”

Michael Feuerman, Esq., CCIM- Senior Vice President, Tenant Brokerage at Berger Commercial Realty represented WDSrx in the transaction.

For further information or additional materials contact WDSrx Marketing Director Larry Hotz, lhotz@wdsrx.com or 561-998-3885 x304

High resolution image available here.