

Logistics Services Provider WDSrx Adds Director of Operations Kenneth York to Leadership Team

Boca Raton, FL (June 21, 2021) – Pharmaceutical logistics services provider Woodfield Distribution, LLC (WDSrx) announced the hiring of Kenneth York (Ken) as Director of Operations. York is an experienced operations professional increasing efficiency within world-class logistics companies to assure client satisfaction.

York directs logistics services including inventory management, receipt, storage, handling and order fulfillment of at nine warehouse locations within the WDSrx network.

Career experience includes roles as a management consultant, operations executive in the construction industry and as a regional government program manager. As Operations Manager for Amazon, he directed inventory and shipping functions to best-in-class safety and quality standards.

“Rapid business expansion and the establishment of a national footprint requires the attention of a seasoned logistics professional who can increase productivity and consolidate operations for maximum efficiency, so Ken is the logical operations team leader for WDSrx,” according to WDSrx President Adam Runsdorf.

York earned a B.A from Northwestern University and received his Master's degree from Columbia University. As Adjunct Professor at Seminole State College, he taught Operations Management, Sustainability, Supply Chain Management and Entrepreneurship.

His hobbies include teaching and investing in business startups. York resides in Boca Raton with his family.
